Unlocking PayPal Account Q&A,FAQ and Scripts published:09 Oct 2017 views:205047 JamesSchmidt, the Vice-President of EpicRisk, explains what to do in the wake of the Equifax breach. #CitiSummit Mr Schmidt discussed the initial problems the company faced with its cloud security system and how it dealt with these problems, in the days following the hack. On the issue of a hack like this, the answer is simple. Change the security-related processes. To help arm the customer against such threats, the company worked to warn the public about signs of fraud. To increase consumer safety, the company saw a need to change its cloud security to safe platforms, a move taken before they were hacked. Currently, Mr Schmidt's team is operating a new and improved platform. In 09e8f5149f
